ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 14th of December 2005)

The dispute brought before the Court essentially arises out of ordinary contract and termination thereof.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, I am not persuaded to step-in under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and undertake adjudication of the disputed facts and resolving lis between the parties. The appropriate forum to decide the kind of dispute brought before the Court is the jurisdictional Civil Court. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. All the contentions raised in this writ petition are left open to be agitated by the petitioner before the jurisdictional Civil Court for its decision.
